

Thank you for joining us!

Choosing a Church is a big deal.

Consider taking five visits before making your decision about Connections. You might want to check out a Connection Group, or join us for a special event. If you need any help or have any questions, please find someone wearing a Connections lanyard.

Today we welcome Rev. Joy Engelsman back to Connections Church. Joy serves as a Community Chaplain across the Front Range and was recently accepted a position as the Leadership and Evangelism Trainer for Youth for Christ International in Africa. She will help equip YFCI staff to minister to the 600 million young people across the continent of Africa.

Connection Group Winter Semester has begun. For a list of Groups, more information, and how to register, go to myconnections.church/groups or email info@myconnections.church

Next Sunday we will have a Congregational Meeting following worship. We'll vote on the budget and discuss our ministry plan for 2020. Copies of the budget are available at the Welcome Table.

Connections is joining the Douglas County Winter Shelter Network. We will have an informational meeting after worship on February 2. Training will happen after worship on February 16 (Lunch provided). And Lord willing, we'll host here at Connections on February 25, March 10 and March 24!
